WHAT YOU CAN DO

1. Ask your Dentist if you have Dental Fluorosis – appears as white and/or brown patches (mottling) or pitting on your teeth. If you do have Dental Fluorosis, you should be aware that you have already been exposed to unsafe levels of Fluoride.

Ask your Dentist to confirm, in writing that you have Dental Fluorosis.

2. Ask your GP or Medical Specialist for a medical certificate stating, that due to your medical condition, and/or diagnosis of Dental Fluorosis,

Fluoride is detrimental to your health (or to the health of your child), and that you require access to non-fluoridated drinking water or an appropriate water filter system.

3. Submit a copy of this certificate to council with a letter, stating that,

In the event of Council introducing fluoride into the town water supply, Council should provide to your household, free of any cost, a suitable water purifier (Reverse Osmosis system) or an alternative supply of unfluoridated, drinkable water.

4. You and your doctor can access an extensive Fluoride Health Effects database on the website www.fluoridealert.org
